Bow Junction delivers a diverse blend of hard driving bluegrass with gospel, folk, country, and even a little bit of Celtic. Combining a respect for tradition with an ear for innovation, this seasoned New Hampshire band has been entertaining audiences for many years. Bow Junction is available for festivals, town concerts, weddings, and just about any event where music is needed.

The band released their debut CD, "Bow Junction Bluegrass" in April 2007. Featuring a variety of traditional bluegrass, folk and gospel tunes, audience response has been fantastic.

Bow Junction writes and performs their own original music and is looking forward to recording these originals on their follow-up CD. One of their originals, "Arlington Ladies," was a finalist in the 2008 Ossipee Valley Bluegrass New England Songwriting Championship.

Russ Aubertin plays rock-solid rhythm and lead guitar and is a prolific songwriter. Linda Magoon provides spark and drive on the mandolin, and has been known to pick up the banjo and guitar. Randy Hencke's smooth and subtle bass keeps Bow Junction in time, on time and in tune.
